EVENT INFORMATION

Carrot Fertility is the leading global fertility benefits provider for employers, built to support employees through their entire fertility healthcare journey. Companies use Carrot to customize a fertility benefit that provides employees financial, medical, and emotional support as they pursue parenthood, reducing healthcare costs and resulting in better clinical outcomes. Carrot's clinically-managed program includes egg freezing, in vitro fertilization (IVF), donor and gestational carrier services, and adoption; Carrot Rx, a premium pharmacy experience, at significant savings; Carrot Pregnancy; and the Carrot Card®, a flexible fertility benefits debit card employees can use to pay for their care. Founded in 2016, Carrot has raised more than $40M and is backed by U.S. Venture Partners, F-Prime Capital, CRV, Precursor Ventures, Maven Ventures, Sound Ventures, and Uncork Capital. ### SPEAKER INFORMATION

Tammy Sun is the Co-founder and CEO of Carrot Fertility, the leading global fertility benefits provider for employers. Carrot's clinically-managed program includes egg freezing, in vitro fertilization (IVF), donor and gestational carrier services, and adoption; Carrot Rx, a premium pharmacy experience, at significant savings; Carrot Pregnancy; and the Carrot Card®, a flexible fertility benefits debit card employees can use to pay for their care. Tammy was inspired to create Carrot after she spent $35,000 of her personal savings to undergo egg freezing. Carrot's mission is to improve access to high-quality fertility care and dramatically reduce the emotional and financial strain for employees who need it. Carrot supports nearly 200 companies in more than 50 countries across North America, Asia, Europe, South America, and the Middle East.

Tammy has had a successful career across marketing, technology, and politics. Most recently, she was the Director of Partnerships at Evernote. Prior to Evernote, she spent a decade in politics, where she served as a presidential appointee at the Federal Communications Commission during the Obama administration. She also held roles at the Clinton Foundation and The White House.
